200 PHONES KNOCKED OUT

FIRE IN SWITCH BOARD AT BELL EXCHANGE.

PATRONS WERE ANGRY

Couldn't Get a Response From Central and Went to the Company's Offices to Complain—Satisfied With the Explanation.

When one of the switch boards at the Bell telephone exchange burned out about 3 o'clock Thursday afternoon, over 200 telephones were put out of commission. The blaze, originating back of the board, blazed out suddenly, startling the young lady operators who, however, had presence of mind to quickly get a bucket of sand and at the same time summon assistance. The blaze was soon extinguished and Plant Chief O. E. Hagestrand and his astistants immediately began the arduous task of repairing the board.

Two repair men from Pittsburg arrived in the evening and worked all night and most of the day Friday. By noon Friday most of the telephone lines had been put into service again although the work of making repairs is not yet completed. By the use of the multiple switchboard, other subscribers could be connected with those whose lines were burned out, but the latter could not get a response from central. Many aggravated subscribers called at the exchange Friday morning, demanding to know the cause of the trouble, and when told seemed satisfied to be patient until the trouble could be remedied.

Crossed wires caused the fire.

LOCAL BAPTISTS HOPE TO RETAIN PASTOR

The committee appointed by the Baptist church to see how much money could be raised toward retaining Rev. Herman Lang as pastor of the local church consists of Messrs. H. Eddy, M. Buell and C. Older.

At the meeting Wednesday evening the pastor's resignation was tabled for two weeks until this committee can see if it is possible to retain Rev. Mr. Lang at an increase of salary instead of allowing him to accept the call of the Ashtabula church.

WELLSVILLE CASE MAY EXTEND INTO NEXT WEEK

Lisbon, Jan. 6.—The taking of testimony occupied all of today in the second trial of the case against Mayor Edwin McKenzie and Officer Patrick O'Connor, of Wellsville, charged with interfering with Lisbon officers in the discharge of their duty. Officers who took part in the raid were all called as witnesses and the last witness for the state was Acting Mayor Beacom, of Wellsville.

The defense began its testimony by questioning the two defendants. O'Connor's testimony differed considerably from that offered in the first trial of the case and he was given a grilling cross-examination.

In all probability the case will not be finished this week.

LISBON DELEGATES AT LAYMEN'S CONVENTION

Lisbon, Jan. 6.—A crowd of 22 delegates from the different city churches left yesterday afternoon for Youngstown to attend the Laymen's Missionary convention held in that city last evening. The delegation was composed of men prominent in church work in this community and they returned late last night on a special car. The meeting was chock full of enthusiasm and the delegation had plenty of opportunity to hear from the different phases of the work that is being accomplished by this movement.

"TRUE SOURCE OF LIFE" WAS SHEAKER'S SUBJECT

Elder R. G. Huggins preached another very strong sermon Thursday evening at the Church of God on the subject, "The True Source of Life," showing that the deity is the only source of life.

"It is written in John 5: 26, 'For as the Father hath life in himself; so hath he given to the Son to have life in himself. Jesus said of himself he could do nothing. All life and power resides in the Father. The Son has been given power to raise from the dead whom he will. He wills to raise those who believe in him. 'He that hath the Son hath life. He that hath not the Son hath not life.' 1 John 5: 12. It has been truly said that we are generated into the first Adam and regenerated into the last Adam—Christ. It is unscriptural to affirm that we have life through generation. All creatures receive power to live through the breath of life."

Elder Huggins sought to prove the mortality of man both from a logical and scriptural standpoint. He is a forceful and pleasant speaker. The subject for Friday evening will be, "Stephen's Dying Prayer."

JUDGE SENT MRS. CRIP TO COUNTY INFIRMARY

Lisbon, Jan. 6.—At the session of juvenile court held Thursday evening Judge Farr heard the case of Mrs. Laura Crip, of Coulmbiana, charged with contributing to the delinquency of her three minor children, Lillie, aged 15; Clarence, 8, and David, 4, the children being charged at the same time with being both delinquent and dependent. In the course of the trial the woman practically admitted that she had lived with Eli Flickinger in Columbiana for the past year as his wife and that he was the father of a three weeks' old infant which she brought with her into the court room. At the conclusion of the hearing Mrs. Crip, who is also a victim of the dope habit, was sent to the county infirmary for the present, with her infant, and application has been made for the admission of Lillie, Clarence and David to the Fairmount Children's home. The home conditions of the children were of the worst regarding moral surroundings and the court gave her a stinging lecture.

Mrs. Nancy Little.

Damascus, Jan. 6.—The long and useful life of Mrs. Nancy Little, one of the oldest residents of this village, came to an end Thursday night about 11:30. Death came as a result of old age, she having been in a failing condition for two years.

The deceased was born in 1817 near Claysville, Pa., and resided there with her parents for a number of years, coming to this village about 40 years ago. She is survived by the following children: Mrs. Elizabeth Dixon, of this place; William, of Canton, and Leander Little, of Dayton.

The funeral will be held Sunday at 2:30 at the late home with interment in the Damascus cemetery.

THE PEOPLE ALREADY OWN THE RAILROADS SAYS CONG. KENNEDY

That the people already own the railroads of the country is the basic thought of an important address delivered in the house by Congressman James Kennedy, of the Eighteenth district, during a discussion of house bill No. 29360 making appropriations for the legislative, executive and judicial expenses of the government for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912.

Mr. Kennedy was at the moment discussing the question of government regulation or government possession of the railroads, one or the other of which he considers inevitable, and it is predicted by those who have read the speech closely that it is a valuable contribution to clearer thought and a better understanding of the exact relation of the railroads to the people and the government. Mr. Kennedy said, in part:

"There is a growing sentiment in the country today favoring what men term 'government ownership of railroads.' The word 'ownership' in this connection is carelessly used. Governments, when they hold title to property, in every instance are mere trustees holding the property in trust for the public, so that in discussing the two antagonistic schools of thought upon the subject of the American railway, the one which has for its slogan at present the words 'government ownership' should change that phrase, so as to be clearly understood, to 'government possession of railroads,' while those of us who oppose government possession stand for government regulation of railroads. In either case the public will own all the roads and highways.

"Underlying all authority in this country is one great corporal entity which we call the public. It created our complex government consisting of states and nation. Out from that same intangible thing of power and potency went to the several states authority for each state, acting for the public, to create corporations to be trustees for railroads, to convey from the public to such corporations the power of eminent domain to enable them to construct the railroads. This they have done. It is recognized law that where a charter granted to a corporation is accepted, acted on by the incorporators, and moneys expended in carrying out the purposes of the charter, that contract obligations arise between the newly created corporation and the public. The contracting parties are the corporations upon the one hand and the public upon the other. The contract thus made is binding and will remain so upon the parties thereto if the state government which issued the charter should be dissolved or passed out of existence the next day. The only way we can take from the railroad corporations in this country their rights to take tolls upon the commerce carried is by repudiating on the part of the public its contract with the railroad companies or by acquiring such rights by purchase from them.

"The only property which a railroad company has is its right under its contract with the public to take tolls. This right it has, if its charter is perpetual, forever, and it is guaranteed to it by that clause of the constitution guaranteeing the inviolability of contract. That is the clause of the constitution which protects the railroads in their rights, and not that clause in the constitution with reference to the appropriation of private property. They have no private property.

"The railroad corporation is a distinct part of our government institutions. It is the trustee of our railroads, and as thoroughly subject to regulation and control as is the postoffice department of the government. In one we have government possession, while we operate the other through a corporation which we have created for that purpose under a contract, the terms of which are clearly implied in the charter of the corporation, and fixed, determined and interpreted by a long line of judicial decisions. The power to regulate and control in the national legislature is not one whit greater or more complete in the management of the postal department than it is to regulate and control the operation of the railroads.

"The making of charges for the carrying of freight over our railroads are held to be legislative acts, like the levying of any other tax, and can only be fixed by the railroads in cases where the legislatures have neglected to perform that duty. * *

"We should no longer hesitate to assume jurisdiction over the financial transactions of railroad corporations. We make appropriations by congress for the use of the postoffice department, determining by legislative act what extensions shall be made, what amplification and enlargement of the service is required, and restrict expenditures accordingly while no restraint whatever has been exercised over the trustees of our highways. They have been permitted to issue bonds and stocks against the credit of the public, said indebtedness becoming a direct charge upon the property of the public, without restraint or supervision, and it is a matter notorious that this license in the past has been grossly abused. Stocks have been watered, moneys have been raised for which there was no public necessity by the sale of bonds which were secured by mortgage on physical properties which belonged to the public. We have had transactions in high finance in connection with our railroads that are a very great discredit to us as a people. A great many millions of loans that were not needed for legitimate railroad purposes have been raised by these public trustees, and the same have become a charge upon the public. It is a debt that the public must pay. It is well for us at this time to give a thought, in passing, as to where the blame should rest for this wholesale looting of the public, which has been the most prolific source of so many bloated fortunes in America.

"I do not purpose to cry out with great and unusual bitterness against

The Climate In Pittsburg Just Suits Donahue

Lisbon, Jan. 6.—Mayor J. H. Hinchliffe received this morning a communication from John Donahue, formerly of Wellsville, but now located in Pittsburg. Donahue states in his communication that the climate and altitude of Pittsburg are very satisfactory to him and that he has concluded to stay there. The mayor infers from this that Donahue is endeavoring to side-step further proceedings against him in nine charges of illegal liquor selling now pending in the local court. Donahue was arrested for the fourth time recently.

M'GRAW TO BE GIVEN A TRY-OUT WITH SOX

Leo McGraw, of Cleveland, a member of Salem's 1909 baseball nine, who caught for the Memphis team of the Southern league, last season, will be given a tryout by Manager Comiskey of the Chicago White Sox next season.

McGraw's arm attracted a lot of scouts last summer. He was the best batting catcher in the Southern league and there was no backstop in Dixie land who could throw quite so hard as the big Cleveland boy. Three big league clubs drafted him and the White Sox got him when they drew cuts. McGraw played his first game for pay with Salem in 1909. He played at the first station and acted as utility backstop. When the Salem team was abandoned, he spent the remainder of the season with the Youngstown O. & P. club.

East Liverpool, Jan. 6.—The "dry" element in the city has taken actual steps toward a determined attack on the re-entry of the proposed Dean bill into the legislation of the Ohio state assembly, now in session at Columbus.

A petition was circulated throughout the city yesterday, which in effect is a protest against the passage or the consideration of Senator Dean's liberal measure. Whether or not it is being generally signed is not known.

It is understood that similar petitions are being circulated throughout the state at the instigation of the Anti-Saloon league. They will be forwarded to Columbus and used in the campaign against the bill.

BIDS TO BE CALLED FOR AT ONCE FOR TUBERCULOSIS HOSPITAL

Lisbon, Jan. 6.—The county commissioners returned last evening from a conference held at Akron with the members of the building board for the new four-county tuberculosis hospital. At the meeting yesterday plans and estimates compiled by Thayer & Thayer, of New Castle, were presented to the board after having been recommended by the trustees of the hospital, and after being thoroughly investigated were accepted. The board then by unanimous vote authorized the trustees to at once advertise for bids for the construction of the building. The plans and specifications call for a modernly equipped building of pleasing appearance and of sufficient size to accommodate many more persons than are known to be suffering with the disease in the counties of Portage, Summit, Stark and Columbiana. It is desired by the board that the buildings be completed as soon as possible so that there will be no danger of the counties represented falling short of the provision in the recently enacted law which provided for these institutions.

HUNTER, PROMOTER, HAD INTERESTING EXPERIENCE.

A KENTUCKY PRODUCT

Said to be a College Graduate But Has a Black Record—Hunter Not His Right Name—New Year's Dinner in Jail.

Leroy M. Hunter, the man who posed as a textile fabric capitalist is now in jail at Charlotte, N. C. He was taken there by an officer on December 31 and ate his New Year's dinner in the county jail in the city of Charlotte. Under date of January 1, the Charlotte Daily Observer says:

Wearing handcuffs and with an officer on either side of him Leroy M. Hunter returned to Charlotte yesterday, this time a prisoner. December 14 he came to Charlotte as a substantial manufacturer from Alliance, O., eager to establish a tool factory in the Queen City. The story covering the interim between December 14 and 26, during which time Hunter fleeced two of the Charlotte banks and sought to work the same scheme in Washington and other cities, terminating in his arrest at Havre de Grace, Md., reads like a chapter in a story book.

Hunter came to Charlotte in December and shortly after his arrival communicated with the Greater Charlotte club. He said that he was looking for a site for a tool factory which he proposed to move from Alliance and W. T. Cornwith, secretary of the club, at once introduced him to leading citizens. Mr. H. M. Victor, of the Union National bank, and Mr. H. M. McAdam, president of the Fir tional bank, were two of those Mr. Victor was deceived by t ready address an a check for $ he at once cash This was on Dec following day Hunte McAdam and presen the Alliance bank for check was also honored. ber 16 Mr. Victor thought been a little hasty in cashing a without knowing something abou man and wired the Peoples bank, Alliance, making inquiry and learne by the answer that the man was a fraud.

Mr. Victor spent $125 to loc secure the return of Hunter, w will now answer for obtaining money under false pretense, which in North Carolina is a felony.

Atlee Pomerene understands, we believe, that he is to be a real representative of the whole people's interests. They made possible his success in the caucus Thursday. They put the bosses to rout. He is eloquent and should find it comparatively easy to command attention and respect ...n the highest legislative body of the ...ation. He is young, resourceful; ... personal record is unimpeachable, ...is not hedged about by partisian ...ations, and our prediction is that ...ll be an honor to his state.

...ere, oh where, does Judson ...d, now that the smoke of battle has cleared away? Candidly, we do not think that the governor came out of the senatorial struggle with flying colors. He proved himself to be an artful dodger. But he did not succeed in hodwinking very many of the rank and file. When the interests of the people were at stake—when it looked for a time as though the bosses of his party, that are not one whit better or more patriotic than the bosses of any other party, would name the senator—a call came clear and loud for Governor Harman to do something or say something in the people's behalf. Influential newspapers throughout the state that had given him their best efforts during the campaign pointed out his duty clearly and emphatically. But did he respond? Not he. Our Uncle Judson had his eye on the White House and he lacked the nerve to buck the bosses. Fortunately for him, the people won. If they had been defeated his future would have been a closed and sealed book. Now that his party has chosen a man for senator who is satisfactory to the public it will not be the object of immediate criticism. Harmon will profit by that, for unfortunately the public is not always as nicely discriminating as it ought to be and such things are too soon forgotten. But remember that for this favorable condition Judson Harmon is in no wise responsible. He crouched in his tent when the services of a general were needed. The captains and the lieutenants and majors had to go to the front and lead. To the general belongs none of the glory.

But one indictment was returned by a Portage county grand jury the other day when it reported to the court. This either indicates that the jury was not very energetic or that Portage is rapidly becoming a model county—and we are inclined to believe that the latter is the correct interpretation! Ravenna papers please copy.

Lisbon, apparently, is not to lack for daily information, even though both daily newspapers have suspended. Four or five out-of-town papers are jumping in to fill the aching void and they may fill it so full that it will still ache.

Mr. Brandeis, the shrewd lawyer, is now attempting to tell the railroads how they may save a million dollars a day. He would be more popular if he could tell us how to reduce the cost of living about a million a day.

Voters in Hamilton county admitted yesterday that they had sold their votes for $1 each. That's about $4 cheaper than the average price in Adams county but it's probably all they were worth.

The X Ray.

The X ray, so called, was discovered on Oct. 8, 1895, by Professor W. C. Roentgen. The professor was experimenting with a Crookes vacuum tube, electrically excited, and enveloped in a black covering, when he noticed that some of the rays proceeding from the tube passed through the black paper and affected a fluorescent screen some two or three yards away. In such way did his great discovery come to him, when he was least expecting it.

Persistent.

"Our Tommy," said the boy's mother, "ought to make a success in life. He shows great determination to stick to anything he undertakes."

"Does he?" queried the proud father.

"Yes," she replied. "Why, he put in the whole day making soap bubbles and trying to tie a string to them."—Chicago News.

"What is this 'wanderlust' you read of so often as compelling people to leave home?"

"I don't know," replied Mr. Cumrox; "but, judging from my observation of people who have it, 'wanderlust' is German for 'creditors.'"—Washington Star.

He Was Manager.

"What do you do for a living, Mose?"

"I's de manager ob a laundry."

TO SECURE A LOAN.

READ THE WANT COLUMN

A Famous Parlor Maid.

Sydney Smith, the famous author and wit, in describing his early married life in a Yorkshire parsonage told how he made a butler out of a village girl:

"A manservant was too expensive, so I caught up a little garden girl made like a milestone, christened her Bunch, put a napkin in her hand and made her my butler. The girls taught her to read, Mrs. Sydney to wait, and I undertook her morals. Bunch became the best butler in the county."

But Bunch was not merely butler—she was valet too. A visitor thus describes her:

"Coming down one morning, I found Bunch pacing up and down the passage before her master's door in a state of great perturbation.

"'What is the matter, Bunch?'

"'Oh, ma'am, I can't get no peace of mind till I've got master shaved, and he's so late this morning!'

"This 'getting master shaved' consisted in making ready for him with a large painter's brush a thick lather in a huge wooden bowl as big as Mambrino's helmet, which she always considered as the most important avocation of the morning."

When the Danes Were Skinned.

In former times the Danes used to sail up the mouths of the English rivers to pillage the churches. When they were caught they were skinned and their skins nailed to the door of the church they attacked. In course of time all the exposed portions would peel off, but that covered by the nail would be protected and thus bear testimony to the cruelty of the ancient Englishmen. In the London College of Surgeons may be seen three specimens of human skin bearing labels such as this: "Portion of human skin said to be that of a Dane from the door of a church at Hadstock, in Essex." A second specimen is from Copford, in Essex, and a third from the north door of Worcester cathedral. Such fragments of sacrilegious Danish hide have been found on doors in Westminster abbey.

Were Kind to Him.

A West Philadelphia man who was severely injured some months ago when his horse took fright at an automobile and bolted, upsetting the carriage, has only recently been released from the hospital. He is well now and in the best of spirits notwithstanding the fact that severe operations were necessary in order to save his life.

A few days after he left the hospital a friend asked him if he had been kindly treated.

"Oh, yes!" he said. "Oh, yes, indeed! Considering the fact that they amputated both my feet, removed my collar bone, cut off my left thumb, trepanned my brain, took out a piece of my underjaw and sawed my left hip bone in two, I got along very nicely. They were most kind to what was left of me."—Philadelphia Press.

Beaconsfield the Dandy.

The dandyism Benjamin Disraeli affected in his dress is the subject of many pen pictures in Monypenny's "Life of Beaconsfield." At the age of nineteen he is described as wearing a black velvet suit with ruffles and black stockings with red clocks. A later portrait, in 1830, comes from a friend's diary, which has the following entry:

"March 29.—B. D. to dine with me. He came up Regent street when it was crowded in his blue surtout, a pair of military light blue trousers, black stockings with red stripes and shoes. 'The people,' he said, 'quite made way for me as I passed. It was like the opening of the Red sea, which I now perfectly believe from experience. Even well dressed people stopped to look at me.'"

Haroun-al-Raschid to Charlemagne.

The only sovereign of the time who could compare with Charlemagne was the famous Haroun-al-Raschid who as the head of the Moslem world sent the keys of Jerusalem to the head of the Christian world, besides a striking clock, an ape and an elephant—things which impressed the imagination of those times as typifying that Charlemagne had been invested with the sovranty of Jerusalem and the lordship of the world.—T. A. Cook in "Old Provence."

Labor Leaders Involved in Dynamite Outrage, It Is Said

Los Angeles, Cal., Jan. 6.—Twenty-two indictments were returned by the grand jury in connection with the Los Angeles Times explosion on Oct. 1, but the names were not made public.

All indictments charge murder or a connection with the crime that caused the death of twenty-one employes.

It is understood that the men who bought dynamite in San Francisco, as well as a number of Frisco labor leaders who came here and incited the local unions to engage in a general strike, are among those indicted.

GERMS IN HER SYSTEM

Every Woman Should Read This Advice and the Generous Offer That Goes With It.

A number of diseases peculiar to women is such that we believe this space would hardly contain a mere mention of their names, and it is a fact that most of these diseases are of a catarrhal nature. A woman cannot be well if there is a trace of catarrh in her system.

Some women think there is no help for them. We positively declare this to be a mistaken idea. We are so sure of this that we offer to supply medicine absolutely free of all cost in every instance where it fails to give satisfaction, or does not substantiate our claims. With this understanding, no woman should hesitate to believe our honesty of purpose, or hesitate to put our claims to a test.

There is only one way to overcome catarrh. That way is through the blood. You may use all the snuffs, douches or like remedies for years without getting more than temporary relief at best. Catarrh in general is a diseased condition of the system that shows locally most frequently in discharges from mucous membranes. Local treatment should be assisted by internal treatment for the general diseased condition if a complete cure is to be reached. That internal treatmen should be scientifically devised and faithfully administered.

Rexall Mucu-Tone is scientifically prepared from the prescription of an eminent physician who for thirty years made catarrh his specialty. This remedy is admirably adapted to the treatment of the catarrhal ailments of women. It purifies and enriches the blood, tends to stop mucous discharges, aids in removing impurities from the system, soothes, heals and strengthens the mucous tissues, and brings about a feeling of health and strength.

We want you to try Rexall Mucu-Tone on our guarantee. If you are not benefited, or for any reason not satisfied, simply tell us and we will hand back your money. Rexall Mucu-Tone comes in two sizes—50 cents and $1.00. Remember, you can obtain Rexall Remedies only at The Rexall Store. Floding's Pharmacy.

Making the King's Bed.

Among the duties of the yeomen of the guard in the olden times was the singular one of making the king's bed every night and searching it for any dangerous weapon that might be concealed therein to the detriment of his majesty's sacred person. First one of these stalwart soldiers had "to tumble up and down" the mattress. Then "the esquire for the body" took the sheets and rolled them on his arm or "stripped" them through his hands. Whenever the yeomen touched the bedclothes they had to make the sign of the cross and kiss the place, which must have rather prolonged the ceremony! Finally, when the bed had been made, with much quaint but interminable "ritual," the said esquire sprinkled it with holy water, and then the martial bedmakers retired to a supper provided for them "without the traverse"—i. e., across the corridor.

Henry VIII. greatly embellished the yeomen's costume and presented them with cloth of gold horse cloths valued at £5 a yard. His first queen, Katherine of Aragon, by the way, had a bodyguard all to herself, which, after her divorce, passed into the service of Anne Boleyn.—Richard Davey's "The Tower of London."

FOR PERMANENT TARIFF BOARD

Longworth Introduces Measure in House of Representatives

HAS PRESIDENT'S APPROVAL

Rainey, Still After Roosevelt, Offers Resolution Creating Committee to Investigate Ex-President's Traveling Expenses—Norris Asks to Have More Changes in House Rules. Memory of Elkins Honored.

Washington, Jan. 6.—Representative Nicholas Longworth of Ohio introduced his bill in congress to create a permanent tariff commission. The measure has the approval of President Taft. It proposes an appropriation of $250,000 for the purpose.

The bill provides for a commission of five men at a salary of $7,500 a year, to be appointed by the president and confirmed by the senate. It further provides that not more than three of the five commissioners shall be members of the same political party.

In general the duties of the commission are to investigate the cost of production of all articles, both here and abroad, which may be made the subject of tariff legislation and especially with reference to the prices paid for labor here and abroad and for raw materials entering into the manufactured articles, and the condition of domestic and foreign markets as they affect American products, together with all other facts which may be helpful to congress in providing proper rates of duty.

They are also to report to the president, whenever he directs, information to assist him in the application of the maximum and minimum tariff and other administrative provisions of the customs laws.

The results of the investigations of the commission are to be made in the form of reports and submitted either to the president or to congress when called for by either.

Norris Wants Rules Changed.

Another demonstration over the house rules is assured as a result of the introduction of two resolutions by Representative Norris, the Nebraska progressive.

One of the resolutions provides that the proceedings of all house committees shall be made a matter of public record. It prohibits house committees meeting behind closed doors under any circumstances. This proposal is regarded as revolutionary by regulars.

"The making of committee meetings public will be a step toward making the house directly responsible to the people," said Representative Norris. "There is no method of throttling legislation so effective and so generally practiced as the process of killing bills in committee. Under the present system there is no fixed responsibility for the action of committees. My resolution will make it possible for the public to place its finger directly on the man or men responsible for defeating or holding a bill in committee."

Senate Pays Respects to Elkins.

The senate adjourned after a brief session out of respect to the memory of the late Senator Elkins. Mr. Scott, the junior senator from West Virginia, made the announcement of the death of his former colleague. He was visibly affected and could scarcely be heard. The usual resolutions of respect and sympathy to the memory of Senator Elkins were adopted, and a committee of senators appointed to attend the funeral, which will be held at Elkins, W. Va.

Rainey Hangs on Teddy's Trail.

Representative Rainey of Illinois offered a resolution in the house several weeks ago providing in a general way for an inquiry into the cost of Mr. Roosevelt's travels while he was president and calling for information as to whether Mr. Roosevelt paid his own expenses on such trips and if any unpaid bills on this account were held against the railroads.

Mr. Rainey has now submitted another resolution providing for the creation of a congress committee of five members to make the proposed investigation. The resolution specifically names the Pennsylvania, the Northern Pacific and the Southern roads.

Wants Militia Better Equipped.

A hint that the country is unprepared for war is contained in a communication submitted to the house by Secretary of War Dickinson. Secretary Dickinson asks that an appropriation of $750,000 be made available for the equipment of state militia organizations with field artillery. Such equipment, it is argued, is imperative if the state organizations are to be kept in readiness for emergencies.

Calls For Thanks For Root.

A joint resolution introduced by Representative Douglas of Ohio proposes to confer the thanks of congress upon Elihu Root "for his patriotic service before the permanent court of The Hague in the arbitrated settlement of different questions long in disagreement between the United States and Great Britain."

Scottish Names.

No country has experienced the difficulty arising from the commonness of one surname in a district more intensely than Scotland. With a whole countryside populated by Campbells, Frasers or Gordons, some more distinguishing nomenclature had to be found. And no doubt this was the chief reason why at one time men were always known by the name of their estate or farm. Dean Ramsay remembered an old cowherd who was always known as Boggy. His real name was Sandy Anderson, but he had once owned a wretched farm called Boggendreep, and he was Boggy to the day of his death.

Governor Foss Asserts People Must Control Government.

Boston, Jan. 6.—Eugene N. Foss was inaugurated governor of Massachusetts before the senate and house, assembled in joint convention in the house of representative's chamber.

In his inaugural address Governor Foss says that "government of the people is coming to be only a name." He asserts that the people must take into their own hands the direction and control of their government. He declares that "the first step is to abolish the bosses."

Bass For Progressive Legislation.

Concord, N. H., Jan. 6.—Governor Robert P. Bass, progressive, thirty-seven years of age, the youngest executive the state has ever had, was inaugurated. The governor's message recommended many progressive measures.

Plaisted Maine's Ruler.

Augusta, Me., Jan. 6.—Frederick W. Plaisted of this city took the oath of office in the house of representatives and is now governor of the state of Maine, the first Democrat to hold the office in thirty years.

Of white individuals at least 10 years old in the general population of the United States in 1900 80.5 per cent were native born and 19.5 per cent foreign.

BACKACHE GOES AND KIDNEYS ACT FINE

If your kidneys are disordered or you suffer with backache or bladder misery a few doses of Pape's Diuretic now will effect a cure.

Put an end to kidney trouble while it is only trouble—before it develops into dropsy, diabetes, gravel or Bright's disease.

The moment you suspect any kidney, bladder or urinary disorder, or feel a dull, constant backache, or the urine is thick, cloudy, offensive or full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a scalding sensation, begin taking Pape's Diuretic as directed, with the knowledge that there is no other medicine, at any price, made anywhere else in the world, which is so harmless or will effect so thorough and prompt a cure.

Pape's Diuretic acts directly upon the kidneys, bladder and urinary system; cleans, heals and regulates these organs, ducts and glands and completes the cure within a few days.

Pains in the back, sides or loins, rheumatic twinges, prostatic trouble, debilitating headache, nervousness, dizziness, weakness, bilious stomach, sleeplessness, inflamed or puffy eyelids, worn-out feeling and many other symptoms caused by clogged, inactive kidneys promptly vanish. Frequent, painful and uncontrollable urination due to a weak or irritable bladder is overcome.

Your physician, pharmacist, banker or any mercantile agency will vouch for the responsibility of Pape, Thompson & Pape, of Cincinnati, who prepare Pape's Diuretic—50 cent treatment—sold by every druggist in the world.

NO MORE CATARRH

Bolger & French and Floding's Pharmacy Has a Guaranteed Cure That Has Stood the Test of Time.

Catarrh cures come and catarrh cures go, but HYOMEI continues to cure catarrh and abolish its disgusting symptoms wherever civilization exists.

Every year the already enormous sales of this really scientific cure for catarrh grows greater, and the present year will show all records broken.

If you buy a HYOMEI outfit for $1.00 and hide it in a dark cupboard it won't cure your catarrh.

If you breathe it daily as directed it will cure your catarrh or it won't cost you a cent. Ask Bolger & French or Floding's Pharmacy.

If you have a hard rubber Hyomei inhaler somewhere around the house, get it out and start at once to forever rid yourself of catarrh.

Bolger & French or Floding's Pharmacy will sell you a bottle of HYOMEI (liquid) for only 50 cents; start to breathe it and notice how quickly it clears out the air passages and makes the entire head feel fine.

HYOMEI used regularly will cure catarrh, coughs, colds, bronchitis or sore throat. A complete outfit including a hard rubber pocket inhaler costs $1.00. No stomach dosing. Just breathe it. It kills the germs, soothes and heals the inflamed membrane.

PEOPLE OWN RAILROADS

the railroad management which has grievously transgressed, for this, perhaps, has already been overdone by the muckraker and the shallow-brained uplift writers. There has never been a railroad security, stock or bond wrongfully issued in this country for the wrongful issue of which the blame does not attach, in some measure at least, to the American public. The power has at all times rested in the hands of the public to have assumed supervision and control of these corporations. It could at any time have restrained them from making loans that were not required, from building railroads that were not needed, from issuing stocks to represent the increased physical value of public roads in order to pay stock dividends, thereby appropriating the increased valuation of public property to the private use of individuals who are stockholders of the railroad corporation. During all these transactions the public has not been innocent. It has been guilty tof the grossest kind of neglect of its own interests. It has, while represented year after year in congress, permitted these companies, which were the public's own trustees and representatives, to issue these securities, which are in every true sense of the term the obligations of the public, which the public must ultimately pay or repudiate, while it, the public, kept silent while the money, much of it, was misappropriated. In view of these facts, I cannot forbear from raising my voice on the floor of this house to urge that at this session we should at least enact a law to stop this evil. A law making it unlawful on the part of these public trustees to create obligations until some legislative authority has found and determined that there is a public necessity to incur such public debt; to also make it unlawful to expend moneys raised by the issue of such securities for any other purpose than that for which the loan was authorized. This would be additional regulation along sound and correct lines, and it might prevent another wholesale looting of the public. We framed such a measure in the committee on interstate and foreign commerce in connection with the bill which passed congress at the last session. This part of it, however, was rejected after a most confusing discussion involving the subject of the physical valuation of the railroads.

"It is difficult to understand in what way the physical valuation of the railroads should affect either the issuance of stocks or the fixing of rates. The present value of the right of way of a railroad may bear no relation whatever to the cost of that same property when the public acquired it. I have in mind the Cleveland & Mahoning Valley railroad, running through the city of Youngstown, Ohio, my home city. The right of way occupied by that corporation through the city of Youngstown is worth, I should think, a thousand times more today than it was when the company acquired it from the public. Its physical valuation, if taken today, would show that tremendous increase in value which has come to it during the years which have intervened between that year and this, while the property itself has belonged to the public. When the road was built, Youngstown was but a village, originating a few thousand tons of freight to be carried by the road. Today it is a great commercial city, where approximately 13,000,000 tons of freight originate annually. No more vicious scheme could possibly be contrived by the ingenuity of cunning financiers to water securities than to permit this corporation and others like it to capitalize from year to year the ever-increasing value of the physical property which they hold in trust, issuing securities against this increased value and appropriating such securities to their own private use. The increased value of properties thus held in trust by them belongs to the public and in no sense to the stockholders. The stock issues of a railroad company should never be greater than is necessary to raise money with which to construct, equip and operate the property which they hold in trust for the public. * * * *

"I have been amazed at how many of the members of congress refuse to lend assent to the plain truth that the public now owns the railroads. Some say that it is by reason of the fact that they are common carriers that we have a right to regulate them. Gentlemen forget that the very primary reason for all those restrictive rules known as the law of common carriers was that the carrier used a public highway. He is a common carrier, because the thing of greatest value which he employs in his activity is public property, the common property of all. This kind of regulation accomplishes every good that the Socialist talks of when he clamors for government ownership or government possession.

"By doing our duty along these lines we get every advantage desired and escape these tremendous evils that would come with government possession, evils which no judicious person can contemplate without fear for the very integrity of the republic itself. The taking into politics and covering directly into the government service such a tremendous army of men as are engaged in our great transportation systems would be incompatible with popular government."

Stone In Bla Removed Without S ical Operation

In the Spring of 1904, I was confined to my bed with kidney trouble and thought that I would never recover. I took a lot of medicine but did not realize any benefit from anything. I finally saw Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root advertisment and sent for a sample bottle and thought the sample bottle helped me, so I bought more of the medicine from my Druggist, and after using a few bottles discharged a very large stone from my bladder. After passing this stone my health was very much improved and I have been able to continue my business without any serious sickness.

POMERENE GETS THE NOMINATION

His Election as Senator to Be Made Complete Next Week

ONLY TEN VOTES FOR HANLEY

Lieutenant Governor Receives Forty-five Votes, Said to Be His Maximum Strength, But Sufficient to Award Him the Toga—Twelve Candidates Are Voted For by the Democratic Caucus.

DEMOCRATIC VOTE ON SENATORSHIP.

Lieutenant Governor Pomerene, 45.
State Chairman Hanley, 10.
J. J. Lentz of Columbus, 3.
J. E. Campbell of Columbus, 4.
W. S. Thomas of Springfield, 1.
T. T. Ansberry of Defiance, 5.
M. A. Daugherty of Lancaster, 5.
James Kilbourne of Columbus, 3.
D. D. Donovan of Napoleon, 4.
O. H. Hughes of Hillsboro, 2.
T. E. Powell of Columbus, 1.
C. C. Anderson of Fostoria, 5.

Columbus, O., Jan. 6.—Atlee Pomerene of Canton, attorney-at-law and lieutenant governor-elect, was nominated for the United States senate to succeed Charles Dick by the joint Democratic caucus of the Ohio legislature. The election will be made complete next Wednesday.

Pomerene received forty-five votes, the exact number required for the nomination. There is a probability that the forty-five represented his maximum strength. Pomerene was declared the unanimous choice after the announcement of the ballot's result.

Twelve Candidates in the Field.

Eleven candidates in the field against him had freely predicted that he could not win, although they admitted he would easily lead on the first ballot.

E. W. Hanley of Dayton, connected with several gas corporations, was Pomerene's leading competitor. He received only ten votes. This is probably accounted for by the unexpectedly large field of candidates.

Their entry is said to have been encouraged by the Hanley men in order to prevent Pomerene getting enough to win on the first ballot.

Cuyahoga Delegation Does It.

The selection of Pomerene was largely brought about by the action of the Cuyahoga delegation in entering the caucus, although a few weeks ago it was announced they would not. They finally decided to caucus with the other members and Pomerene gained a substantial block of votes thereby.

Pomerene addressed the legislators after the caucus and declared that had he not believed the people preferred him above other candidates he would not accept.

LOOSE BUSINESS METHODS IN VINTON

Not So Bad as Montgomery County, Auditors Report

Columbus, O., Jan. 6.—The report G. Tatman, special examiner of state auditing department, relative to conditions in county offices in Vinton county was filed with Auditor of State Fullington.

Although the conditions found in Vinton county are better than those of Montgomery county, the examination of which showed a deficit of over $92,000, business methods of Vinton county officials are found to be decidedly loose.

Mr. Tatman found that between April, 1907, and September, 1910, the sum of $1,577.10, the greater part of it consisting of fees paid to the officials themselves, was disbursed from the county treasury illegally.

GOVERNOR APPOINTS PABST

Butler County Man Accepts Place on State Tax Commission.

Columbus, O., Jan. 6.—Governor Harmon has appointed ex-Auditor Chris Pabst of Butler county to succeed William B. Poland of Cincinnati, resigned, as member of the state tax commission.

"I wanted someone with auditorial experience for this place and from what I can learn Mr. Pabst will fill the bill in this particular," said Governor Harmon in officially announcing the appointment and its acceptance. Mr. Pabst will report for duty at once. Mr. Poland only served about six months of his term. The salary is $5,000 a year.

"Ping" Bodie Signs Up.

San Francisco, Jan. 6.—"Ping" Bodie, San Francisco left fielder, has signed a $2,250 contract to play with the Chicago White Sox.

"The Liver Pills act So Naturally and Easily."

Such a statement, coming from the cashier of a bank, shows what confidence responsible people have in these pills. Mr. A. L. Wilson after trying them wrote:

> "I have used Dr. Miles' Nerve and Liver Pills and also your Anti-Pain Pills, on myself, with good results. The Liver Pills act so naturally and so easily that I scarcely know that I have taken a pill. Frequently being troubled with headache I take an Anti-Pain Pill and get immediate relief in every case."
> A. L. Wilson, Sparta, Ill.

Mr. Wilson was for a number of years cashier of the First National Bank of Sparta.

Dr. Miles' Nerve and Liver Pills are different from others. Many kinds of liver pills are "impossible" after one trial on account of their harshness. Dr. Miles' Nerve and Liver Pills do not act by sheer force but in an easy, natural way, without griping or undue irritation. They are not habit forming.

KILLED IN DOUGH MIXER

Baker Seigelman Ground to Pieces by Revolving Blades.

New York, Jan. 6.—Jacob Seigelman, a baker, whose wife died a few weeks ago, leaving seven small children, was ground to pieces in a dough mixer in his bakery in Brooklyn.

When Seigelman first fell into the mixer he gave a terrible scream which aroused the neighbors. His helper stopped the machinery and pulled the mangled body from the dough trough. Seigelman was killed almost instantly.

ANIMALS PERISH IN FLAMES AT CANTON

Zoo Destroyed by Fire; $15,000 Damage

Canton, O., Jan. 6.—The entire city zoo, with the exception of several bears and deer, perished in a fire, which destroyed the winter quarters in Nimisilla park here last night. The blaze began in a part of the building where there was no fire.

The zoo building was completely destroyed. Prized animals including eagles and peacocks, alligators, wolves, foxes and a large number of smaller birds and beasts died in the flames. Their cries and shrieks were heard for blocks. The damage is estimated at $15,000.

TOO MODEST TO GIVE CHASE

Woman Scantily Attired Lets Burglar Escape With Her Money.

Lorain, O., Jan. 6.—The fact that she was attired only in her night clothing prevented Mrs. Murray Sharon of Oakwood avenue from capturing a thief who, she says, stole $156 in money and a bank book.

She says the man, who was a boarder, entered her room and began talking to her. Then she felt his hand on her throat and screamed. The man ran out of the room and she discovered he had taken her pocketbook. She ran to the door, saw the man disappearing down the street, but could not pursue him because of her scant attire.

S.S.S.

PURELY VEGETABLE THE ONE SAFE BLOOD REMEDY

It is a generally recognized fact that medicines taken from the botanical kingdom are better adapted to the delicate human system, and safer in every way than those composed of strong mineral mixtures. Among the very best and safest of vegetable preparations is S. S. S., a blood medicine made entirely of roots, herbs and barks, in such combination as to make it the greatest of all blood purifiers and the finest of all tonics. S. S. S. does not contain the least particle of mineral in any form, and is an absolutely safe medicine for any one to use. While purifying the blood, this great vegetable remedy builds up every portion of the system. S. S. S. cures Rheumatism, Catarrh, Sores and Ulcers, Skin Diseases, Scrofula, Constitutional Blood Diseases, and all impurities and morbid conditions of the circulation. It is perfectly reliable and safe for children; and little ones who have been weakened with scrofulous affections or other inherited blood troubles, can take this mild vegetable remedy with good results and without the slightest danger. S. S. S. is unequalled as a tonic; it invigorates every portion of the system, and the healthy blood it creates largely assists in overcoming any derangement of the stomach and digestive system. If you need a blood medicine you could do no better than to take S. S. S. It has been in use for more than forty years and is still recognized as the best. Book on the blood free to all who write.

DANGER FOR SALEM PEOPLE—APPENDICITIS.

Many Salem people have wind or gas on the stomach or bowels, sour stomach or constipation and do not know that these are symptoms of chronic appendicitis which any minute may become acute. They should try simple buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as compounded in Adler-i-ka, the new German appendicitis remedy—A SINGLE DOSE will bring relief. Frank Floding states that the QUICK action of Alder-i-ka is a constant surprise to people.

Willing to Be Martyrs.

Some years ago a French tradesman stated that he wished to be guillotined instead of a murderer who had been condemned to death. Of course the authorities declined to do as he wished, and he went away vowing that he would give his life for some one else later on.

A Russian peasant who was noted for his quiet piety offered to be shot in order to save a revolutionary who was awaiting the carrying out of the death penalty. This, he said, was not done out of any sympathy for the accused, but merely to show his disapproval of the principle of taking lives of criminals.

Probably the most extraordinary case on record was that of a Quebec citizen who passed himself off as a murderer for whom the police were searching. When the matter was investigated it was found that the self accused man had nothing whatever to do with the crime. "No," he said, "you're right. I'm not the murderer, but my wife leads me such a miserable life at home that I thought I would escape from matrimonial wretchedness by getting the government to hang me."—Pearson's.

Queen Elizabeth and Her Portraits.

The modern grievance of the illustrious against the photographer of the halfpenny paper has a parallel as far back as the early part of Queen Elizabeth's reign, when her minister, Cecil, issued a proclamation against the circulation of ill favored likenesses of her majesty. It stated that, as her majesty had perceived "a great number of her loving subjects to be much grieved with the errors and deformities" displayed in many popular portraits of herself, she had been pleased, "being herein, as it were, overcome with the continual requests of so many of her nobility and lords, to command that some cunning person should shortly make a portrait of her person or visage to be participated to others for the comfort of her loving subjects."

32 YEARS

1878-1910

The woods are full of remedies for Croup, Grip, Coughs, Catarrh, Asthma, etc., though many thousands of families in the United States and Canada regard Brazilian Balm as King of all. But it is surely King in another line, for it was the first and only remedy in history offered to the public for the prompt cure of Typhoid (at any stage) and for the prevention and cure of contagious diseases with an unbroken record of success of over 30 years behind it.

Its secret lies, as all scientific men agree, in its power to instantly kill the noxious germs, and the disease vanishes—or if given in time, (15 drops 4 or 5 times a day) it absolutely prevents, even to diphtheria and Smallpox. Thus in an epidemic a 50c or $1.00 bottle will safeguard a whole family, no matter how greatly exposed.

We do not invade the domain of the Doctor, for no doctor to our knowledge, claims to prevent and instantly cure this class of diseases—but must let them "run their course." Their idea is that what would kill the germs would kill the patient, yet this simple, safe and harmless balsam, wihout a trace of narcotics, minerals or poison in it, has never failed, or lost a case of croup, grip, catarrh, pneumonia, typhoid or contagious diseases in 30 years; thus proving that drastic and dangerous drugs are not required in an effective anticeptic. So utterly are the germs annihilated out of every organ and tissue that no evil after results follow, as deafness, blindness, etc., after measles or scarlet fever. If Helen Keller had been treated with Brazilian Balm I believe she would not have been left deaf, dumb and blind after measles in her seventh year. It even cures Quick Consumption down to last stage if all narcotics are abandoned, which kills the effect of the Balm. Put in a wound relieves in an hour and cures the Blood Poison over night. Here again it stands alone. At druggists 25c 50c and $1.00 a bottle or send us $1.00 for two $1.00 bottles, you to pay express.

NEARBY NEWS IN BRIEF

Canton women made their first appearance as fight fans Monday afternoon when an even dozen of them attended the Standard Athletic club's three bouts at the auditorium.

Warren Fagan, age 19, was locked up in the Stark county jail to await the action of the grand jury on a charge of burglary. He was brought to Canton from Alliance by Captain of Police Oswalt. Fagan was unable to give a $1,000 bail bond.

Leonard Fitzgerald rescued four-year-old Helen Engle from an infuriated bulldog Tuesday in Youngstown. The dog had attacked her as she was on her way to a store on an errand for her mother. The animal lacerated her face before she could be rescued.

The traffic in coal on the Ohio river still continues and East Liverpool saw about 2,700,000 bushels of the black diamonds shipped to southern points Tuesday. The River Coal company of Pittsburg has forwarded to points south practically every boat possible since the rise in the river.

When train No. 39 on the Pittsburg & Lake Erie railroad pulled into the Haselton yards early Tuesday morning from Pittsburg the body of an unconscious man was found on the pilot. He was hurried to City hospital, where it was found his skull was fractured and that he suffered internal injuries. He died later.

New Castle social and church life is all wrought up over a recent ball given by a dancing club which is composed of members of the younger society set of the town. It is alleged that intoxicating liquor was poured into the punch which was served as refreshment at the dance in order to make the Billy Sunday converts depart from the straight and narrow way.

STOMACH SUFFERERS SQUANDER MILLIONS

IN SEARCH OF RELIEF.

Trial Package of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets Free.

The world is full of disordered stomachs and 90 per cent of the money spent upon physicians and drugs goes in an attempt to cure the stomach.

People are made to believe that in order to gain health they must doctor their stomachs and use cathartics. So the doctor gets his fee for the stomach treatment and the druggist for the physic, until the savings of a life time are exhausted and yet no cure.

Let's be reasonable.

The sick stomach is in every case the result of over-eating, hurried mastication and improper choice of foods. The mucous lining all the way down the food tract loses its sensativeness, and when food is forced down the muscles fail to respond. They do not churn the food as they should. The glands no longer give out gastric juice to dissolve the food and render it capable of assimilation. The man has become a dyspeptic.

There is one sure way and only one to bring positive relief. Put into that stomach of yours the very elements that it lacks to get that food into liquid form. It takes pepsin, diastase, golden seal and other ferments to accomplish this. The healthy stomach contains these elements. The dyspeptic stomach lacks part or all of them. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is made up of just what the dyspeptic stomach lacks—nature's digestives.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are not a medicine, not a drug, not a cathartic. They do not cure anybody of anything but dyspepsia and indigestion and such ailments as arise from poorly digested food.

While they digest the food the stomach recuperates. The mucous membrane is coming out of its stupor, the gastric juice is coming to the surface, the muscles are regaining their power. Every organ of the body takes on new power life, the skin gains color, and the eyes are no longer tinged with yellow. You live.

Why doctor and why drug yourself? Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will take care of your food while nature cures you.

Try a box at your druggists, 50 cents. Or, if you prefer a free trial package before buying, send your your name and address today. F. A. Stuart Co., 150 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich.

Good Liver Remedy Free

When you suffer from any form of indigestion it is always well to take something for the liver, as usually the trouble lies there. If you are bilious, have a bloaty feeling after eating, if you belch, if your skin is yellowish you may be sure it is liver trouble.

What you need is something to stir up the liver, to arouse the gastric juices so that they will aid in the digestion of your food. A very good remedy for this, and one highly recommended by those who have used it, is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which you can obtain of any druggist at fifty cents or one dollar a bottle. But if you have any doubt about its merits, and would prefer to try it first, send your address to Dr. Caldwell and he will promptly send you a free sample bottle.

Thousands of people first learned of this remarkable cure for stomach, liver and bowel troubles through a free sample. Mrs. Frank Lilly of Plainview, Ill., sent for one and it cured her and she is open in saying that she will never take pills or strong cathartics again, as Syrup Pepsin acts so mildly. Mr. W. L. Bryant, the Postmaster at Sardis, Tenn., says he will never be without it again. No sick person can afford to ignore a remedy so highly endorsed as this. It is good for all the family from infancy to old age, because it is mild, free from griping and yet promptly effective. Furthermore, results are absolutely guaranteed or money will be refunded.

Dr. Caldwell does not feel that the purchase of his remedy ends his obligation. He has specialized in stomach, liver and bowel diseases for over forty years and will be pleased to give the reader any advice on the subject free of charge. All are welcome to write him. Whether for the medical advice or the free sample address him Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 541 Caldwell building, Monticello, Ill.

DOSE HANDED OUT TO MORE BOODLERS

List of Disfranchised Voters Increased by 115

West Union, O., Jan. 6.—Judge Blair handed out the usual fines of from $10 to $60 to the self-confessed bribe takers. He also disfranchised them for five years.

One hundred and fifteen of these men confessed and to date $9,000 in fines has been collected. Judge Blair issued a statement warning many of the bribe takers to come in and confess.

"Many persons who received money at the last election have not come in," he said. "They do not need any notice to do so. Every person who received any money knows it. If they desire to be frank with the court they will come in at once. If they have no money to pay their fines they will be given a fair chance to arrange it."

Now that "old Adams" has confessed her sins many persons prominent here are wondering what effect the vote fraud revelations will have on the county's political future. Local ministers and newspapers are united in favor of Judge Blair's crusade.

Rev. Emil Baumann, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of West Union, said:

"One hears occasionally that within the next two years this county will join the ranks of the wets. I do not believe it. Any citizenship that can have the moral conscience to support such a probe as is being conducted by the present court is not going to fall on the liquor question. Personal pride in the county by the voter will cause him to reject any such move in spite of several who wish it otherwise.

"Regarding the present condition I wish to say that every intelligent citizen has been aware of the existence of boodling. A few who may not have known it are defective in observation. And all who have not taken a stand against it are guilty from the moral view, even if they have not been caught in the meshes of the present probe. But it has reached a happy conclusion and a regeneration is now taking place. The politicians themselves are glad."

Nearly Freezes to Save $2.

Columbus, O., Jan. 6.—A man named McAllister, whose home is in Cleveland, rode to this city on the top of a mail car attached to a Big Four train. He was nearly frozen, but was revived at the depot. He had $2, but did not want to spend it for railroad fare.

Joseph K. Russell, the last member of the original firm of the Russell Co., of Massillon, died Tuesday morning at the age of 87 years.

Tamed Him.

"Slip me a brace of cackles," ordered the chesty looking young man with a bored air as he perched on the first stool in the lunch room.

"A what?" asked the waitress as she placed a glass of water before him.

"Adam and Eve flat on their backs! A pair of sunny siders!" said the young man in an exasperated tone.

"You got me, kid," returned the waitress. "Watcha want?"

"Eggs up," said the young man. "E-g-g-s, the kind that come before the hen or after, I never knew which."

"Why didn't you say so in the first place?" asked the waitress. "You'd 'a' had 'em by this time."

"Well, of all things!" said the young man.

"I knew what he was drivin' at all the time," began the waitress as the young man departed. "But he's one of them fellers that thinks they can get by with anything. He don't know that they're using plain English now in restaurants."—Kansas City Times.

Knew Just How.

Many years ago in Paris at the first presentation of a tragedy that had for its closing scene the murder of a Swedish king which had taken place nearly half a century earlier all went well till the murder scene came on, when a very dignified old gentleman in the stage box showed signs of strong dissatisfaction and at length called out angrily:

"Absurd! They've got it all wrong!"

The manager himself heard this plain spoken comment, and, being naturally disturbed by so sweeping a condemnation, he sought out the critic and politely begged to know what fault he had to find with it.

"Why, my good sir," cried the old man, with an air of authority, "the whole grouping of the scene is incorrect! You have made them kill the king to the right of the door, whereas we murdered him on the left!"

The Tea Chewers.

"Chewing tea comes from Siam," said a traveler. "They call it mieng. It is in a plug, like chewing tobacco, and it has a villainous smell. This smell is due to the fermentation it has undergone. The tea that the Siamese employ for chewing purposes is a very coarse, rank plant. It is gathered like ordinary tea, but the leaves after being compressed into plugs are buried for fifteen days. They ferment during burial. On their resurrection they are very, very fragrant indeed. The Siamese boatmen chew tea. The rickshaw men chew it. The litterateurs chew it. They say it makes them work better. This is probably the truth, for I chewed a plug myself in Anam, and it exhilarated me strangely. But the aftermath was bad—a headache, smarting eyes and nervous depression."—Washington Post.

When Tolstoy Tried to Fly.

From earliest childhood Tolstoy was remarkably observant of the things that were going on in the world around him. Thus, while still in his teens, we find him taking an interest in the art of flying that was too practical to suit his devoted mother. With characteristic thoroughness he invented a design of his own and with equally characteristic courage proceeded to put it to an immediate test from a second story window. But the boy, who was afterward to find food for thought for the whole civilized world, was not destined to make his mark as an infant aeroplanist. He fell instantly to the ground, and, though by great good fortune no bones were actually broken, the concussion was so great that young Tolstoy afterward slept for sixteen hours on end.

Joy For Johnny.

Johnny's mother was telling Johnny stories from Bible history. And Johnny for a long time was very silent. At last he sighed and looked up questioningly into his mother's face.

"When I get to heaven shall I know every one?" he asked.

"Yes, indeed," answered his mother

"Napoleon, and Samuel, and George Washington, and Solomon, and—and David?" persisted Johnny.

"Certainly, dear!"

"Well, then, mother, if I'm very good—if I'm ever so good and ask him ever so nicely, do you think that David will let me touch his slingshot—just touch it—once?"—Philadelphia Times.

Death.

Death, the dry pedant, spares neither the rose nor the thistle, nor does he forget the solitary blade of grass in the distant waste. He destroys thoroughly and unceasingly. Everywhere we may see how he crushes to dust plants and beasts, men and their works. Even the Egyptian pyramids, that would seem to defy him, are trophies of his power, monuments of decay, graves of primeval kings.—Heinrich Heine.

Pa's Idea.

"What was the trouble at the building of the tower of Babel, pa?"

"I'm not certain, but I think it was between the union and the nonunion workmen."—New York Press.

Serious Intentions.

Nellie—Hasn't Mr. Felewalley proposed yet? Nora—No, but he has gone as far as to ask what time we have breakfast and whether mother is a good cook.—Exchange.

Consolation.

Mrs. Gramercy—My husband is anxious to get rid of me. Mrs. Park—Don't cry, dear. In that case he won't haggle over the alimony.—Smart Set.

Lake Now Occupies Site of Prejevalsk and Its 10,000 Inhabitants Are Gone—Destruction of Telegraph Lines Which Connect With Stricken Region Down and Verification Difficult—Shock W[illegible] Very Violent.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 6.—Authenticated accounts of the earthquake in Russian Turkestan are still lacking, but the reports reaching the newspapers here continually magnify the disaster.

It is stated that the town of Prejevalsk, near Lake Issik Kulsank, was destroyed with all its inhabitants to the number of 10,000.

A new lake now occupies the site of the town. Pijpek, on the river Chu, is also reported to have been destroyed with a large proportion of its 6,000 inhabitants.

The destruction of the few telegraphs in that region prevents verification of the reports or the obtaining of details.

Undoubtedly the shock was very violent. It is supposed to have extended for 800 miles east and west.
